Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 27 June 2008.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 9 and 10 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected Group and Species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 10/25/2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Crossen 6,513,283.

Crossen discloses a method for securing a bait station (128) comprising providing an enclosure (inner volume of 128); securing the enclosure to a receptacle (120) for holding material (123) to weight the bait station, the receptacle having a cavity (where 123 is received in 120) and being formed separately from the enclosure and affixed thereto (see Fig. 5); the receptacle securable to the enclosure by one or more bolts (1/4 bolt; see col. 3, line 51) passing through a top of the receptacle (through 122) and through a base of the enclosure (through 126), each bolt threaded to receive a nut (not shown; see col. 3, line 51).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Crossen 6,513,283 in view of Bartlett, Jr. 5,943,814 or Faucillon 4,486,973.

Alternatively Crossen does not disclose the receptacle having a cavity for holding weighting material. Bartlett, Jr. discloses the receptacle (56 OR 1) having a cavity (see Fig. 3 OR 12) for holding weighting material (concrete OR concrete). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the receptacle of Crossen such that the receptacle has a cavity for holding weighting material in view of Bartlett, Jr. or Faucillon in order to provide a receptacle which can be filled with any weighting material having the desired density as preferred by the user.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 06/27/2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In regard to applicant's argument that "Claim 6 has been amended to recite that the receptacle has 'a cavity' for holding material to weigh the bait station. Crossen does not disclose a receptacle...", the Examiner contends that Crossen discloses a receptacle (123) which has a cavity to receive weighting material (120) therein. Furthermore, the Examiner has cited Bartlett, Jr. and Faucillon as further evidence that it is old and well known to have a receptacle with a cavity so that the user may customize the weighting material to be filled in the receptacle.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
